OUR PRAYERS ARE WITH YOU

We extend our love and sympathy to Tim Collins, whose father, John Collins, passed away last week. The last words he heard before he took his last breath were “...Jesus loves you, John.” Word was received that a dear former TLC member, Paul Flaming, is now home with the Lord. Remember his wife, Ruby, in prayer; cards may be sent to P.O. Box 818, Yachats, OR 97498

40 DAYS OF COMMUNITY prayer focus: “We Reach Out Better Together” – MISSIONS PROJECT

Pray that our church family will surrender fully to doing their part to fulfill God’s Great Commission in their generation.

...for our church family to devote their lives to telling their personal story of the life-changing power of a relationships with Jesus.

...that our Missions Projects such as feed the hungry for a week in Santa Cruz County and Share Fest along with others, will encourage everyone to become involved in outreach to our community and world.

“Whenever God determines to do a great work, He first sets His people to pray.”
 – C.H. Spurgeon

We want to provide pastoral support...

Please call 465-3395 when someone is hospitalized, scheduled for surgery, becomes a shut-in, or in special need. Prayer support is available through our pastors and numerous prayer groups – call 689-9400. Please pick up a Prayer Update at the Information Desk or Welcome Center.

Part 2: Reaching Out Together

Message by Mark Spurlock, October 7 & 8, 2006

Jesus: “In the same way that you gave me a mission in the world, I give them a mission in the world.” John 17:18 (The Message)

“The most important thing is that I complete my mission, the work the Lord Jesus gave me – to tell people the Good News about God’s grace.” Acts 20:24 (New Century Version)

Our mission:

“You will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all of Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.” Acts 1:8 (NIV)

“Jerusalem” = people closest to me

“Judea & Samaria” = people near but different from me

“Ends of the earth” = everybody else!

Reaching Out Together Means...

1. We share

“Return home and tell how much God has done for you.” So the man went away and told all over town how much Jesus had done for him. Luke 8:39 (NIV)

“All this newness of life is from God, who brought us back to himself through what Christ did. And God has given us the task of reconciling people to him. For God was in Christ, reconciling the world to himself, no longer counting people’s sins against them. This is the wonderful message he has given us to tell others.” 2 Corinthians 5:18-19 (New Living Translation)

“Be wise in the way you act with people who are not believers, making the most of every opportunity.” Col. 4:5 (NCV)

2. We dare

“Whatever a person is like, I try to find common ground with him so that he will let me tell him about Christ and let Christ save him.” 1 Cor. 9:22b (Living Bible)

“...loose the chains of injustice and untie the cords of the yoke, set the oppressed free and break every yoke... share your food with the hungry and provide the poor wanderer with shelter...” Isaiah 58:6 (NIV)

“Pure and lasting religion in the sight of God our Father means that we must care for orphans and widows in their troubles...” James 1:27 (NLT)

“I was hungry, and you fed me. I was thirsty, and you gave me a drink. I was a stranger, and you invited me into your home. I was naked, and you gave me clothing. I was sick, and you cared for me. I was in prison, and you visited me.” Matt. 25:35-36 (Living Bible)

Jesus replied, “Let me assure you that no one has ever given up anything... for the love of me and to tell others the Good News, who won’t be given back, a hundred times over...” Mark 10:29-30 (Living Bible)

3. We care

Jesus said to his followers, “Go into all the world and preach the Good News to everyone, everywhere.” Mark 16:15 (NLT)

“For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.” John 3:16 (NIV)
