Friday

Read 1 Peter 1:16-19. What does Peter say about the source of his belief? Peter's life was changed by an encounter with the risen Jesus. Do you know someone who seems to have met Jesus supernaturally and is now living a changed life? Who? What are they like? What do changed lives prove?

Today, ask the Lord to renew your own enthusiasm for Jesus and the way He has changed your own life!

Saturday

Today please finish any meditations you might have missed, and please pray for the services this weekend. Ask the Lord to bring back to the church this weekend people who need to hear the message that God is true - and truly loves them! Thanks!!

Coming Events

NEW SERIES STARTS TODAY:

Is your faith reasonable?
Or is it just a blind leap in the dark?
Wherever you are in your spiritual journey,
you'll discover reasons for faith in this new series!

Next Weekend: Why Believe in the Jesus of the Bible?

Did Jesus even exist? Are the New Testament gospels just second-century myths? What about the other gospels not in the Bible?

In 2 Weeks: Why Believe in God?

Are there any real evidences for God? Is faith a delusion? Or even destructive? What, if anything, can science bring to this debate?

April 28,29: Why Believe in the Church?

Isn't church history an unbroken record of oppression and murder? What good is church anyway?

Daily Meditations

Brief daily devotions based on this week's topic

Monday

Read John 20:24-29 and Luke 24:38-48. In what ways can you relate to Thomas? What did you learn about Jesus' response to doubt in these verses? How does this help you in your struggle with doubt?

Remember that next weekend we continue our series designed to help those who have had their doubts fueled by recent novels and films. Thank God that He isn't threatened by your doubts! Thank Him for the truth of His word. Ask Him to help you see the evidence He puts around you to help you overcome your doubts.

Tuesday

Read John 11:21-27. What do you say to Jesus' question: "Do you believe this?" What difference has your faith in the resurrected Christ made in your life?

Thank God today specifically for the hope of the resurrection – be specific about what it means to you! If you have never done it before, say "yes" to Christ's question in this passage: "Do you believe this?"

Wednesday

Paul says you and I have the power of the risen Christ at work in our lives if we believe in Him! Read Ephesians 1:18-20. What do you feel powerless over in your life?

How can God's power help in this situation? If you really believed that you had the exact same power that raised Christ from the dead, what would you do that you have been hesitant to do?

Ask God to help you truly believe and understand that you are empowered by the Holy Spirit!

Thursday

Read Isaiah 53. On another page, list the prophecies in this chapter about Jesus. Why do you think God places prophecies like this in Scripture? How do these prophecies help you? Which of these prophecies means the most to you?

Today, thank God for His power demonstrated conclusively in passages like this — and rest in Him, because you have proof here that He knows all about tomorrow!

"Jesus said, 'I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in Me will live, even though he dies.'" John 11:25 (NIV)
